

SUMMER SPRINT

” Ignite your inner entrepreneur

Spark your interest in entrepreneurship and learn valuable knowledge from professionals themselves. Hear how ideas develop into innovations and brands. Get to know the various forms of being an entrepreneur and pick up all the tips of how to build a convincing business idea and concept. In our dynamic Summer Sprint you get the chance to develop ideas and put your pitching skills to the test!

Students of South-Eastern University of applied Sciences (Xamk) will get study credits of their participation (elective entrepreneurship and innovation studies).

This free coaching will be organized live at Mikkeli Karage!
